

Seyfarth Shaw Names Andrew Jurczyk New Chief Information Officer

CHICAGO (April 5, 2012) — Leading law firm Seyfarth Shaw LLP is pleased to announce that Andrew D. Jurczyk has joined the firm as its Chief Information Officer, starting in May. He was previously Global Chief Information Officer at law firm SNR Denton.

With more than 25 years of information services experience, Jurczyk has provided innovative solutions and introduced cutting-edge technologies both in-house at SNR Denton and Sidley Austin and at global communications companies Donnelly Enterprise Solutions, Inc. and AT&T. A seasoned manager, Jurczyk has led IT teams in the design and implementation of pioneering communications and business plans while still achieving cost savings and operational consistency for the businesses.

As Seyfarth's top information technology official, Jurczyk will oversee the department's technology infrastructure and systems. "Andrew is a resourceful leader, and his record of success improving IT organizations will be a great asset to the firm," said Seyfarth Shaw partner Edward Karlin. "He's a strategic thinker, and under his leadership, our IT team will be well positioned to capitalize on emerging technologies that align with our business objectives."

Seyfarth Shaw has over 800 attorneys located in 10 offices throughout the United States, including: Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, New York, Sacramento, San Francisco and Washington, D.C., as well as internationally in London. Seyfarth Shaw provides a broad range of legal services in the areas of labor and employment, employee benefits, litigation, corporate and real estate. The firm's clients include over 300 of the Fortune 500 companies, and our practice reflects virtually every industry and segment of the economy.
