Pro Bono

Elizabeth Levy is an associate in the Labor & Employment Department in the Los Angeles office of Seyfarth Shaw, LLP. Ms. Levy represents employers in all aspects of labor and employment litigation, including harassment, discrimination, wrongful termination, retaliation, defamation, wage and hour, PAGA and class action matters. Ms. Levy has represented clients in various industries, including retail, manufacturing and healthcare. Ms. Levy also regularly advises her clients regarding nondisclosure and arbitration agreements, leaves and accommodations, regular rate and meal and rest break issues.

Ms. Levy has extensive experience in law and motion practice, arbitrations, mediations and large-scale electronic discovery management. She also represents her clients before administrative agencies such as the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. She has litigated employment, consumer, and securities class action matters, on behalf of both defendants and plaintiffs. During law school, Ms. Levy served as a legal intern to the Honorable Ramon E. Reyes of the Eastern District of New York.
