

Breakfast Briefing

To Catch a Thief: Rounding up Rogue Employees

Wednesday, April 25, 2007

On Wednesday April 25th, Seyfarth Shaw will present a breakfast briefing on identifying and protecting trade secrets and other confidential business information.

Who Should Attend:

This program targets HR managers, in-house counsel, and/or Security/IT officers.

Discussion topics will include:

- How to protect your confidential information and trade secrets and what to do if an employee takes them;
- How to keep your intellectual property secure internally and externally; and
- How to detect and investigate employee computer theft of confidential information, trade secrets, or intellectual property.

At the conclusion of the briefing, we will have a panel discussion with experienced representatives in the field of trade secrets, intellectual property and IT security issues.
