NEW YORK (May 16, 2011) — Leading law firm Seyfarth Shaw LLP is pleased to announce that Loren Gesinsky has joined the firm as a Labor and Employment partner in its New York office. Gesinsky comes to Seyfarth from Gibbons P.C.

Gesinsky represents employers and provides counsel on all legal issues pertaining to the workplace, including wage and hour, discrimination, harassment, wrongful discharge, breach of contract, non-compete and other restrictive contracts and trade secrets before federal and state courts, administrative agencies and other investigations.

Gesinsky's arrival continues the firm's aggressive lateral recruitment in its Labor & Employment practice, both locally and nationally. "I am delighted to join the ranks of such a respected and renowned Labor and Employment department," Gesinsky said. "Seyfarth Shaw has a proven and national reputation as one of the top employment firms and is an ideal platform to enhance the services that I bring to my clients."

"Loren is a terrific trial lawyer and a valued addition to our group," said Labor & Employment Chair Lisa Damon. "His experience practicing plaintiffs' employment law and commercial litigation has given him a broad foundation, and it's an added benefit for us."
