

Seyfarth Shaw's Robert Milligan Selected as Chair of ITechLaw's Intellectual Property Substantive Law Committee

LOS ANGELES (June 18, 2012) – Seyfarth Shaw LLP announced today that Los Angeles office partner Robert Milligan has been selected to serve as Chair of ITechLaw's Intellectual Property Substantive Law Committee for the June 2012-May 2013 term. He previously held the appointment of vice-chair of the organization in 2010-2012.

Committee leaders are key members of ITechLaw's leadership team. In addition to assisting with the development of the yearly goals for the committee, other duties include identifying the types of activities and the benefits for members or the association, planning at least one webinar hosted by the committee, and organizing an interactive workshop at the U.S. or European Conferences as requested by the Program Committee.

Milligan is a partner in the Litigation and Labor & Employment departments of the firm. His practice encompasses a wide variety of commercial litigation and employment matters, including general business disputes, unfair competition, trade secret misappropriation and other intellectual property theft.

Established in 1971, ITechLaw is a nonprofit organization with a global membership spanning more than 60 countries, making it one of the largest associations of its kind. The organization's goals are aimed at informing and educating lawyers about the unique legal issues arising from the evolution, production, marketing, acquisition and use of information and communications technology, and both members and officials comprise an expansive spectrum of expertise in technology law. For more information, visit <http://www.itechlaw.org/>.

Seyfarth Shaw has over 800 attorneys located in 10 offices throughout the United States, including: Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, New York, Sacramento, San Francisco and Washington, D.C., as well as internationally in London. Seyfarth Shaw provides a broad range of legal services in the areas of labor and employment, employee benefits, litigation, corporate and real estate. The firm's clients include over 300 of the Fortune 500 companies, and our practice reflects virtually every industry and segment of the economy. For more information, please visit www.seyfarth.com.

