"The eDiscovery Amendments" to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are set to take effect on December 1, 2006. The amendments leave many unanswered questions and do not alleviate the threat of eDiscovery sanctions. The amendments do, however, offer a great "potential" to decrease costs, reduce spoliation risk, and increase certainty in discovery disputes. Please join us for a discussion of the new rules, and gain insight into how your organization can unleash the potential power of the amendments and thus, come to grips with eDiscovery and avoid becoming a victim of spoliation sanctions.
