

Seyfarth Shaw LLP and Counselex invite you to:

International Litigation in the Digital Age

in association with Beachcroft Wansbroughs

Please join Seyfarth Shaw attorneys Katherine Perrelli and Peter Romo in an interactive scenario-based event which explores cross-border trends, procedures and cultures in the context of a major commercial dispute as it develops in multiple and varied jurisdictions.

Key technologies and other issues in the effective management of such disputes will be closely examined.

Who Should Attend?

- In-House Counsel
- Insurers
- Reinsurers
- Claims Managers/Brokers
- Risk Managers

Seminar Program

- 4:45 pm Registration
- 5:15 pm Welcome
- 5:20 pm International Litigation in the Digital Age
- 6:45 pm Questions
- 7:00 pm Drinks and Canapés
- 8:30 pm End

About Katherine Perrelli

Katherine is a partner in the Boston office of Seyfarth Shaw LLP. She is a trial lawyer with over eighteen years of experience representing regional, national and international corporations, insurance companies and financial service firms in complex commercial and employment litigation in the state and federal courts, and before administrative agencies. She has broad experience in the commercial litigation area handling cases involving claims of unfair and deceptive business practices, trade secret misappropriation, breach of non-compete agreements, contract and partnership disputes, securities fraud, director and officer liability, and insurance and reinsurance coverage.

About Peter Romo

Peter is a partner in Seyfarth Shaw's San Francisco office with extensive experience representing life, health, and disability insurers in bad faith/punitive damages litigation. He has also represented insurers with respect to insurance coverage opinions and litigation and environmental insurance coverage actions. In addition, he has extensive experience in securities, products liability and complex commercial litigation, including commercial loan and antitrust litigation, corporate/agency/agent termination actions, premium tax litigation, and NASD arbitrations.

December 1, 2005
The Captains Room at Lloyd's
One Lime Street
London, UK EC3M 7HA

About Counselex

Counselex is not a typical network of law firms. Its business proposition is driven by the needs of international business which require local and focused expertise in specific legal disciplines around the world. Counselex offers “international best practices” in a coordinated, responsive and consistent cross-border service model which is tailored to a client’s distinct challenges.

Counselex provides Counsel who have special expertise in addressing international legal risks. Our Counsel are poised to provide integrated global solutions in the areas of legal risk management, litigation and alternative dispute resolution. This product offering is supported by dedicated practice groups or committees in key related disciplines such as insurance and reinsurance, technology and commerce, real estate and EU/competition law.

Counselex is more than just a product offering. Our attorneys are required to embrace the Counselex core values and culture of excellence in all that we do. A flexible and strategic approach to the delivery of commercial and cost-effective solutions and a commitment to client and market awareness are key to our ability to add value.

Though Counselex is a relatively new network, it is founded on established multi-disciplinary working relationships between numerous law firms throughout the world; firms that have the requisite vision and commitment with lawyers who are accessible and approachable.

Further information on how Counselex can support your organization is available on-line at www.counselex.com. An internet replay of this event is available throughout the month of December. If you wish to take advantage of this replay service, please contact Counselex by e-mail at events@counselex.com.

Seminar Fax Back

International Litigation in the Digital Age

To reserve your place (free of charge) at this event please send back this Fax Form to

Fax: (+44)(0) 20 7894 6915

c/o Kim Huaman, Counselex International Ltd., 30 Eastcheap, London, UK EC3M 1HD or you can also reserve by email: events@counselex.com.

A confirmation letter will be sent to you one week before the seminar.

Please photocopy this form for additional places. If you cannot attend feel free to pass this to a colleague.

Name:
Email:
Job Title:
Organisation:
Address:
Postcode:
Tel:	Fax:
Website:
Data Protection
If you would prefer not to hear from us again with regard to our events programme and other services then please inform Events Team, Counselex International Ltd, 30 Eastcheap, London, UK EC3M 1HD, telephone number: (+44)(0) 20 7894 6914, email: events@counselex.com .	