

Government Contracts

Guiding you through the complexity of government contracts to seize opportunities, navigate compliance, and resolve disputes.

Seyfarth's Government Contracts practice provides a deep bench of seasoned practitioners with a wide range of government, industry, and private practice experience. We assist government contractors of all sizes in navigating the complexities of doing business with the government, from day-to-day compliance matters to large-scale internal investigations, bid protests, and disputes in federal and state courts.
