Current Laws

Jurisdiction	To Whom?	Timing	What Must be Provided	Effective Date
CA California	Applicants + Employees	On job posting and upon applicant and/or employee's request.	"Pay scale," which means the salary or hourly wage range that the employer reasonably expects to pay for the position. Record Retention Requirement: Must maintain records of a job title and wage rate history for each employee for the duration of the employment plus three years after the end of the employment in order for the Labor Commissioner to determine if there is still a pattern of wage discrepancy. These records shall be open to inspection by the Labor Commissioner.	Jan. 1, 2023
CO Colorado	Applicants + Employees	On job opportunity notification. Job Opportunity Notices: To all Colorado employees on the same calendar day and prior to the date on which the employer makes a selection decision. Post-Selection Notices: Within 30 calendar days after a candidate who is selected to fill a job opportunity begins working in the position.	Employer must in good faith disclose the following in the notification of each job opportunity: (1) the hourly or salary compensation or the range of the hourly or salary compensation; (2) a general description of the benefits and other compensation applicable to the job opportunity; (3) the date the application window is anticipated to close; and (4) how to apply for the job opportunity. Job Opportunity Notices: Employers must make reasonable efforts to announce, post, or otherwise make known each job opportunity to all Colorado employees. "Job opportunity" means "a current or anticipated vacancy for which the employer is considering a candidate or candidates or interviewing a candidate or candidates or that the employer externally posts." "Job opportunity" does not include career development or career progression. If an employer is only physically located outside of Colorado and has fewer than fifteen employees working in Colorado, all of whom work only remotely, then, through July 1, 2029, the employer is only required to provide notice of remote job opportunities. Post-Selection Notices: Employer must make reasonable efforts to announce, post, or otherwise make known the following information to, at a minimum, the Colorado employees with whom the employer intends the selected candidate to work with regularly: (1) the name of the candidate selected for the job opportunity; (2) the selected candidate's former job title if selected while already employed by the employer; (3) the selected candidate's new job title; and (4) information on how employees may demonstrate interest in similar job opportunities in the future, including identifying individuals or departments to whom the employees can express interest in similar job opportunities.	Jan. 1, 2024
