What Businesses Need to Know about Non-Competes and Trade Secrets Law

2019-2020 Edition

Dear Clients and Friends,

We are pleased to provide you with the 2019–2020 edition of our 50 State Desktop Reference: What Businesses Need to Know about Non-Competes and Trade Secrets Law. We continue to see significant new cases and legislation regarding trade secrets and non-compete agreements. As reported by industry sources, litigants are filing more and more cases in federal court asserting claims under the Defend Trade Secrets Act (“DTSA”). We also continue to see high profile trade secret and non-compete cases involving the world’s largest companies and concerning emerging technologies. Our 50 State Desktop Reference is a useful guide to see at a glance how the law is currently applied in each state. This year’s guide contains significant updates, including addressing changes in the law in Washington, California, Maine, Rhode Island, Maryland, and New Hampshire.

Any company that seeks to use non-competition and non-solicitation agreements to protect its trade secrets, confidential information, client relationships, goodwill, or workforce needs to stay informed of the varied and ever-evolving standards in each state. This one-stop desktop reference surveying many of the questions related to the use of employee covenants and intellectual capital protection in all 50 states provides a starting point for the HR professional, in-house counsel, or company executive in answering questions about protecting your company’s most valuable and confidential assets. Of course, the information contained in this desktop reference is condensed and simplified, and thus, while it provides a convenient point of reference, always consult with an attorney before making any decisions, as the law is constantly changing.

The breadth of information included in this booklet complements our attorneys’ impressive knowledge when it comes to non-competition, non-solicitation, computer fraud, and trade secret issues across the United States and abroad. As leaders in this field, demonstrated by the team’s recent fourth consecutive “Top Tier” ranking in the 2019 edition of The Legal 500 United States, the attorneys of Seyfarth’s Trade Secrets, Computer Fraud & Non-Competes practice group provide a variety of client-focused services in this space, ranging from counseling and transactional deal advice to trade secret audits to cost-effective injunctions and litigation.

Remaining up to date on current developments is also one of our top priorities. We invite you to visit our award-winning blog at www.tradesecretslaw.com for commentary and analysis on hot new topics in the world of trade secrets, non-competes, unfair competition, computer fraud, privacy, and social media, including significant legislative and case updates. Our practice group’s extensive webinar series serves as another source for up-to-date information on a variety of interesting topics. Visit our blog to view recordings of previous webinars. We invite you to join in on these webinars. Seyfarth is able to offer CLE credit in certain states. We hope this booklet proves a useful and informative tool. Please do not hesitate to contact a Seyfarth Trade Secrets, Computer Fraud & Non-Competes attorney if you have any questions.
