

Perry Tsao
Cyber Claims Advocate

Relevant Experience/Specialization

Perry is a Cyber Claims Advocate with the FINEX Claims & Legal Group in New York. He joined Willis Towers Watson in 2021. Perry is responsible for helping clients better understand current cyber claim trends and available coverages, which includes developing effective claim management and identification procedures.

Perry started his insurance career in 2013 at ACE, currently Chubb, where he handled Cyber & E&O Claims. In 2017, Perry moved to Zurich as a Senior Cyber Underwriter where he was responsible for underwriting middle-market business in the Northeast Region. In 2019, Perry returned to Chubb as a Cyber Claims Director handling Chubb's largest and most complex Cyber Claims.

Education and Credentials

Perry has a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Fordham University and a Juris Doctor from Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University. He is admitted to the New York State Bar.