

David Kasper

Cigna Healthcare
Vice President, National Accounts

David, as the Central Region Market Leader, is responsible for a team of National Account Executives and the overall service and strategy for clients across all of Cigna's lines of business including: Medical, Dental, Pharmacy, Disability, Health & Productivity, Life and Behavioral. Working collaboratively with clients and consultants, David assists in developing innovative solutions and strategies to help deliver results that assist with improving bottom-line results.

David joined Cigna in June 2013 after more than a decade at Waste Management, most recently as its Vice President, Benefits & Compensation. There, he was responsible for strategy, design, measurement, governance and communications of the benefits & compensation programs for 45,000 active employees and benefits eligible retirees globally. Prior to joining Waste Management, David was a benefits consultant at Hewitt Associates.

David received a Bachelor's of Science degree in Political Science from Arizona State University.