Seyfarth Synopsis: USCIS announced today that it has reached the FY 2018 H-1B Cap.

On April 7, 2017, United States Citizenship & Immigration Services (USCIS) announced that it received sufficient H-1B petitions to meet both the Master's and regular H-1B quotas (or "caps") for Fiscal Year 2018, which begins on October 1, 2017. This means that USCIS received more than 85,000 H-1B petitions in the first week of filing, and that more than 20,000 of these petitions were filed under the Master's H-1B cap. USCIS will use a computer-generated random selection process for all cap-subject filings received from Monday, April 3 through Friday, April 7, 2017 to determine which filings will be adjudicated.

USCIS will apply the lottery process first to cases subject to the H-1B Master's cap, which sets aside 20,000 H-1B visas for holders of U.S. Master's degrees or higher degrees. Any Master's cap petitions not selected in the Master's lottery will be eligible for selection in the regular H-1B lottery, effectively providing two opportunities for an H-1B visa. It is anticipated that USCIS will begin to issue receipt notices in May.
